

Vehicle Bid Form

Payee/Joint Payee Certification

The following rules and procedures apply to the sale of property by Nebo Credit Union. Your bid will be subject to these rules and procedures.

1. All bids are cash bids. Credit union members must arrange for loans contingent on being the successful bidder prior to submission of a bid.
2. Nebo Credit Union reserves the right to accept or reject any bids at its discretion.
3. The bidder warrants and represents that he/she has inspected the property.
4. No warranties or representations express or implied, apply to the property. The property is sold in its present condition. The bidder assumes the risk of any defects or problems with the property. The credit union is unable to verify or certify the mileage on the vehicle or the accuracy of the odometer reading.
5. Bids will be accepted until the date stated by the credit union. If no date is stated, the credit union may accept a bid at any time. The amount of the bid must be delivered to the credit union within forty-eight (48) hours of the date of acceptance of the bid. If the bidder cannot be contacted by the credit union, the bid will be rejected.
6. Completion of the sale is subject to the credit union not being stayed or enjoined by the bankruptcy courts and laws, or other applicable laws. The Credit union under no circumstances will be responsible for consequential or punitive damages.
